

General rules for visits at Museu do Café

Welcome to Museu do Café, institution linked to State Culture Secretary, installed in tumbled building by Instituto do Patrimônio Histórico e Artístico Nacional.

To everyone enjoy visiting, some recommendations should be followed:

- 1 – Elder people, disabled people, pregnant and people with infants have preferential access to ticket office and to museum entrance.
- 2 – Exemption and payment of half-entrance are conditioned to presentation of evidential document (letter from applicant institution, student card, public professor/attendant paycheck of Public Security Department, Sutaco, Embratur, CET, public sanitation IDs, etc.).
- 3 – In museum interior, the consumption of any type of food, candies, gums, drinks and cigars are forbidden.
- 4 – Museum has lockers in reception. Entrance of backpacks, bags and other volumes is forbidden.
- 5 – Pictures, and filming are allowed in Museum interior, since there're no commercial purposes. Flashgun is forbidden.
- 6 – To not compromise integrity of exposed material and safety of visitors, it's forbidden to touch, sit or support in objects, on tables and chairs of Auction Room and in expositive space.
- 7 – Avoid talking on cell phone, screaming and running at Museum to not disturb your visit and others.
- 8 – Entrance with swimsuits, without t-shirt and shoes is forbidden.
- 9 – At Museum, use of microphone and speakers by external followers of groups, scheduled or not, is forbidden.
- 10 – Museu do Café reserves the right of requesting exit of any person who jeopardize integrity of catalog collection and/or cause some type of enforcement for other Museum groups or workers.

Museu do Café staff will be pleased of receiving you and we expect you have enjoyed a lot.